

WORKING TO KEEP FRESHWATER FRESH

WINTER SALT WEEK 2025

January 27-31, 2025

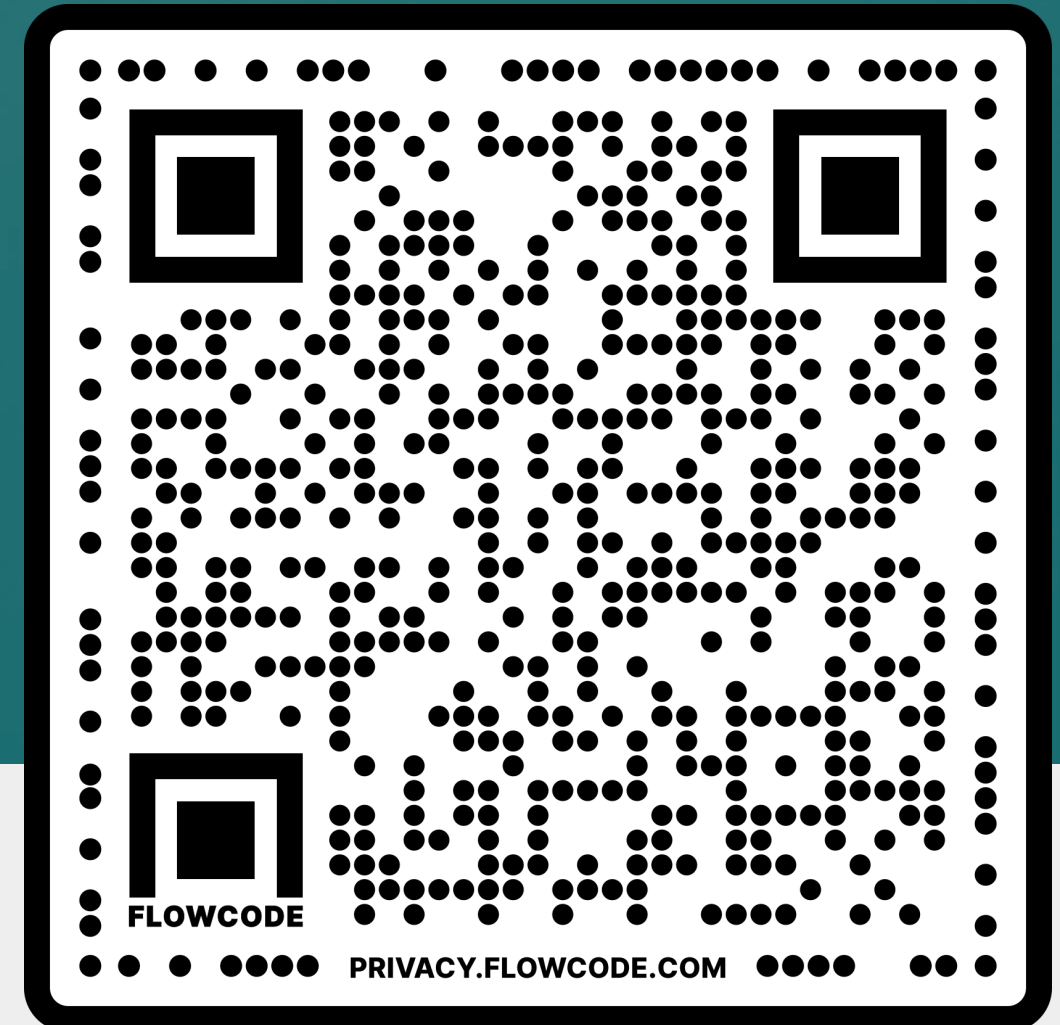

WINTERSALTWEEK.ORG

Winter Salt Week is sponsored by multiple agencies and organizations across the U.S. and Canada to raise awareness around salt pollution and reduction solutions.

Register for free!

Sign up at WinterSaltWeek.org

Schedule

All times are CST.

THE PROBLEMS

- Jan 27 An Eye on Salt Pollution (Live Stream)
12:30 pm & 6:30 pm
Abbey Hileman, Salt Watch Coordinator,
Izaak Walton League of America
- Jan 28 Dilution is NOT the Solution (Live Stream)
12:30 pm
Dr. Jess Hua, Associate Professor,
University of Wisconsin-Madison

THE SOLUTIONS

- Jan 29 Public Works Perspectives (Live Stream)
12:30 pm
Darin Ellingson, Streets and Park Operations Manager,
City of Minnetonka, Minnesota
- Jan 30 Policy Solutions Panel (Live Stream)
12:30 pm
Ted Diers, New Hampshire Dept. of Environmental Services
Cara Hardesty, Ohio Environmental Protection Agency
Bryan Gruidl, City of Bloomington, Minnesota

LOCAL ACTION DAY

Jan 31 Check with your city or watershed organization for local event information.

State and regional partners

- Wisconsin Salt Wise
- Izaak Walton League of America
- Fund for Lake Michigan
- Green Mountain Conservation Group
- Interstate Commission on the Potomac River Basin
- Low Salt, No Salt Minnesota
- Maine Water Environmental Association
- Maryland Department of the Environment
- New Hampshire Dept of Environmental Services
- Northeast Ohio Public Involvement & Education
- Stroud Water Research Center
- The Watershed Institute
- Tip of the Mitt Watershed Council
- Upper Mississippi River Conservation Committee